A Thrift Shop Murder introduces us to Priscilla, Price, who is down on her luck and looking for a new start. As Price says in the book, however, she finds herself jumping out of the frying pan and into the fire. Along with a ghost, three cats, and what has been willed to her, Price is forced to solve a murder mystery.

A Thrift Shop Murder by N.M. Howell - Goodreads

A Thrift Shop Murder is a paranormal (cozy type) reverse harem romance-comedy with snarky banter, a rude grandma-type ghost, a clueless gal, three huge cats who turn into hot guys, magic and mayhem, murder, mystery, lots of shenanigans, and some sexy time. Price (Priscilla) is down on her luck – she literally has nothing to her name.

The jury found the 49-year-old Thrift not guilty of malice murder, which would have carried a heavier sentence than the life with the possibility of parole that Superior Court Judge Michael DeVane imposed after the verdict. Because laws that were in effect in 1991 apply to the case, Thrift will be considered for parole after seven years.
