"Comin' Back to Me" is a psychedelic folk song by the American rock band Jefferson Airplane. It was written by Marty Balin. The song appeared on Jefferson Airplane's second album, Surrealistic Pillow. Marty Balin recalls that "the song was created while he indulged in some primo-grade marijuana given to him by blues singer Paul Butterfield." After writing the song in one sitting, he immediately went to the studio to record his composition with any available musicians at the studio. The song woul

Right! so logically thinking it's probably not gonna come back. But also realistically thinking, suppose 5 years from now Adopt me has released different and all or almost all pets they could make and release but one day all the pets are gonna be made already and there will be no more pets they could create so then what? Of course they're going to bring back the old pets (even if years ...
