Those who commit sexual immorality will face God's righteous, everlasting judgment. Hope for the Sexually Immoral. Yet there is hope for even the sexually immoral. In his first letter to Timothy, Paul discusses the purpose of God's law and says the law was given for "the sexually immoral, [and] men who practice homosexuality" (1:10).

God Hates Sexual Immorality - Tim Challies

The debate over the death penalty has long been about morality. Those in favor argue that the punishment must fit the crime, and that the taking of the life deserves the loss of one's life. Those opposed argue that we cannot be the arbiters of who lives and who dies. The taking of a life, even as punishment, is still murder.
